BA Communication Honors (15 credits minimum)

The Communication Department Honors program offers capable students the opportunity to pursue independent study and to work closely with department faculty members. Completion of the honors major results in an honors degree designation on the diploma.

Required courses:

Students must meet all regular major requirements including the following:

- Three honors-option courses within their major taught by full-time faculty members (internships cannot satisfy this requirement).
- At least one 4000-level seminar offered through the Liberal Arts Honors Program (see: Honors Program). For further information about seminar topics, consult the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences section of the Schedule of Classes, under 'Honors Program.'
- A senior honors thesis under the direction of a faculty adviser in their major area (COM 4996).

Honors College Membership:

F'10 or later: Current WSU and transfer students are encouraged to apply for membership to the Honors College in addition to being part of their department Honors program (www.honors.wayne.edu < Forms).

Note: This worksheet does not contain all of your requirements to graduate. Please see an advisor for details.
