Hasan Elahi is an artist whose work examines issues of surveillance, citizenship, migration, transport, and the challenges of borders and frontiers. His work has been in numerous exhibitions at venues such as SITE Santa Fe, Centre Georges Pompidou, the Sundance Film Festival, the Gwangju Biennale, and the Venice Biennale. His work has appeared in The New York Times, Forbes, Wired, and he has appeared on Al Jazeera, Fox News, and The Colbert Report. Dean Elahi has spoken at the Tate Modern, Einstein Forum, National Geographic, TED, and the World Economic Forum.

This will be a great opportunity for students to meet Dean Elahi and to hear about his personal and professional path to becoming an artist, a leader, and a dean at WSU.

Lunch is provided for all attendees from Beyond Juice and Eatery.
