Fall 2021 Deadline: October 6, 2021

HON 3000 Fulfilling Field Learning with Independent Internship/Co-Op/Practicum

An internship, co-op, or practicum can be a valuable experience. As such, the Honors College encourages students to secure positions related to their field. When a student has an independent internship/co-op/practicum, there are two ways to seek Honors credit and meet the HON 3000 Field Learning Requirement. A student may link the position to a current course or request permission for Directed Study. This form is used in either of those scenarios.

To link Field Learning with a current class, it must be one wherein the course outcomes relate to the position. When a student is not taking a class related to the Co-op/Practicum/Internship, students may seek Honors Directed Study (HON 4990) to meet the Field Learning Requirement. In these instances, students identify a faculty member to oversee the position and provide an assessment.

Use this form to propose your Independent Internship/Co-Op/Practicum. Note: students must complete at least 25 hours and a reflective assignment connecting the work to the academic content of the current class. The student is responsible for coordinating the criteria for a co-op/internship/practicum and the Honors assignment to fulfill the Field Learning requirement. If the course is not paired with a current class, the student is also responsible for securing an appropriate faculty member to oversee and assess the internship/co-op/practicum. That faculty member will provide grade information for the 1-credit HON 4990 for which the student would register.

Be sure to register for HON 3000 in the semester you complete Field Learning. This is not a seated course and is a zero (0) credit course. Students earn satisfactory (S) or unsatisfactory (U) grades. It is paired with an approved course in the same semester. Earning a B or better (3.00) in both the course and on the Honors assignment/project will result in an S (“Satisfactory”) for HON 3000. Regardless of whether the paired class is an Honors section or not, it will count as Honors credit towards the 28-credit University Honors requirement.

Tips for proposing an Independent Co-Op/Internship/Practicum project:

1. Ensure that the Co-Op/Internship/Practicum position and your function is stated clearly
2. Be specific about the academic component of your project. If you are writing a paper, state how many pages it is going to be. If you are doing a presentation, state the topic, intended audience, and length.
3. Getting the details set with your professor can take time, so start a conversation at the beginning of the semester so that you can turn in your paperwork by the due date.
4. If you or your professor has questions, please have them contact honors@wayne.edu and an Honors Academic Advisor will assist.

Independent proposals are subject to review by the Honors College

Tips for proposing an Independent Honors project:

1. CHECK THE TITLE OF YOUR FACULTY. In order to check the ‘Title’ of your faculty to see if they are full time or part time please use the following steps.
   a. Go to www.wayne.edu
   b. Use the search tool and enter the name of the Professor and click the ‘people’ option
   c. Click on the name of the Professor in the list of names that generates
   d. The ‘Title’ of the faculty is what you need to see.
      i. If the ‘Title’ matches any of the categories listed on the Proposal form, then they are considered a full-time faculty and you would check the corresponding box
      ii. If the ‘Title’ states PT UTF, then they are a part-time faculty and you would need to get the co-signature of the department chair before you submit your forms
      iii. If the ‘Title’ states Graduate Teaching Assistant or Graduate Research Assistant, then this professor is not eligible to oversee Honors work and you would not be able to use this class for the Field Learning requirement.

3. Be specific in your proposal about the academic/gradable component of your project. If you are writing a paper, please state how many pages it is going to be. If you are doing a presentation, please state what it is on, who it is for, and how long it is going to be.

4. Getting the details set with your professor can take some time, so start this conversation at the beginning of the semester so that you can turn in your paperwork by the due date.
