

HON 3000 Fulfilling Your Field Learning with Service-Learning

Service-learning prepares students for productive lives in a diverse urban and global environment by involving students in community-based education and civic engagement.

HON 3000 is a zero (0) credit course. It is generally paired with an approved Field-Learning course in the same semester. Earning a B or better (3.00) in both the service-learning course and on the service-learning honors assignment/project will result in an S (“Satisfactory”) for HON 3000. Regardless of whether the service-learning class is an Honors section or not, it will count as Honors credit towards the 28 credit University Honors requirement.

Service-Learning can be completed by creating an Independent Service-Learning experience that directly relates to a 2000-level or above course in which a student is currently enrolled. Use this Service-Learning form to propose this Independent Service-Learning with at least 25 hours of community service plus a reflective assignment connecting the service to the academic content of the class. The student is responsible for coordinating the criteria for a service-learning class and the additional Honors assignment to fulfill the Field Learning requirement.

Tips for proposing a service-learning project:

1. Ensure that the service-learning project is directly linked to the learning outcomes of the course being used. State this connection clearly in your proposal.
2. Be specific about the academic component of your project. If you are writing a paper, state how many pages it is going to be. If you are doing a presentation, please state what it is on, who it is for, and how long it is going to be.
3. Getting the details set with your professor can take some time, so start this conversation at the beginning of the semester so that you can turn in your paperwork by the due date.
4. If you or your professor has any questions, please have them contact honors@wayne.edu and an Honors Academic Advisor will be able to assist.

Independent Service Learning proposals are subject to review by the Honors College

Tips for proposing an Independent Service-Learning Honors project:

1. CHECK THE TITLE OF YOUR FACULTY. In order to check the 'Title' of your faculty to see if they are full time or part time please use the following steps.
  - a. Go to www.wayne.edu
  - b. Use the search tool and enter in the name of the Professor in question and click the 'people' option
  - c. Click on the name of the Professor in the list of names that generates
  - d. The 'Title' of the faculty is what you need to see.
    - i. If the 'Title' matches any of the categories listed on the Proposal form, then they are considered a full-time faculty and you would check the corresponding box
    - ii. If the "Title' states PT UTF, then they are a part-time faculty and you would need to get the co-signature of the department chair before you submit your forms
    - iii. If the 'Title' states Graduate Teaching Assistant or Graduate Research Assistant, then this professor is not eligible to participate in the Independent Service-Learning and you would not be able to use this class for the Field Learning requirement.
2. Make sure that the service is directly linked to the learning outcomes of the course being used. Make sure to state this connection clearly in your proposal
3. Be specific in your proposal about the academic/gradable component of your project. If you are writing a paper, please state how many pages it is going to be. If you are doing a presentation, please state what it is on, who it is for, and how long it is going to be.
4. Getting all of the details set with your professor can take some time, so start this conversation at the beginning of the semester so that you can turn in your paperwork by the due date.
5. If you or your professor has any questions, please have them contact honors@wayne.edu and an Honors Academic Advisor will be able to assist.
