Honors Classes

Honors sections tend to be smaller in size and are usually taught by full-time faculty members. Each Honors class is noted individually on your transcript.

Special sections of a course:
Some sections of a class, such as P S 1010, are marked “Only open to Honors Students,” or “Must have a 3.30 or higher.” Sometimes earns additional credit for Honors students.

Honors courses: These have a subject area code of HON.
HON 1000: The City
HON 4998: Honors Thesis,
HON 4990: Directed Study,
HON 42XX: Honors Seminar.

Honors option:
Courses 2000-level or above that are taught by full-time faculty may be enhanced and count as Honors credit.

Being a full-time student

- Most students will register for between 12 - 16 credits (3 - 4 classes)
- When estimating study time, 1 cr = 1 hour in class + 2 hr. study time (MINIMUM).
- You may have as few as two or three classes, but no more than 18 credits
- Not all of your classes will be Honors.

Honors Website

- Honors Classes
 - Go to “Current Student” and click on “Course Offerings”
- Research@Honors
 - Workshops
 - Opportunities
- Forms
 - Honors Option
 - Directed Study

Tips and Hints

- Easy Math
 - $36 \text{ credits} / 4 \text{ years} = 9 \text{ credits a year}$
- Check Your Email!
- Email Netiquette
 - Include your Access or Banner ID
 - Don't email like you are texting
 - Begin to create your 'professional self'
- STUDY!!!

Pop Quiz!!!

- Minimum number of credits to be a full-time student = _____?
- The Honors e-mail address is:

- True or False, ALL of your classes will be Honors sections.
- How many credits to graduate with University Honors? _____

Questions?

- You can drop, add, and change your schedule at home or anywhere with an internet connection via Academica.
- Pre-Priority registration for Winter 2017 begins in October.
- Departments run their own honors sections so if you run into a registration issue for an honors section outside of an HON course, you will need to contact that department.

Thank you!

Enjoy your summer – it will go by quick!.
